
Title: Shaman's Prophecies

Author: Wild Coyote

Transcribed onto paper from the writings of the Shaman Wild Coyote
We have teachings and prophecies informing us that we must be alert
for the signs and omens which will come about to give us courage and strength to stand on our beliefs. Blood will flow.
Our hair and our clothing will be scattered upon the earth.

Nature will speak to us with its mighty breath of wind. There will be earthquakes and floods
causing great disasters, changes in the
seasons and in the weather, disappearance of wildlife, and famine in different forms.

There will be gradual corruption and confusion among the leaders and the people all over the world, and wars
will come about like powerful winds. All of this has been planned
from the beginning of creation.

The New Race

Time passed on, people passed on, and the prophecies of things to come were passed from mouth to mouth. The stone tablets and the rock writing of the life plan were often reviewed by the elders. Fearfully

they waited as they retold the prophecy that one day another race of people would appear in their midst and claim our land as his own. He would try to change our pattern of life. He would have a sweet tongue or a
good things by which we would be tempted. He
attempt to trap us into
must not fall for this trick, for then we ourselves would be brought to our knees,
from which we might not be able to rise. Nor must we ever raise our hand against any nation. We now call these people
Elfar.
